

TERRACORPS

TerraCorps is an AmeriCorps affiliated start-up environmental non-profit preparing and mobilizing emerging leaders to help communities gain access to and conserve land for people and nature. Working at the intersection of the land conservation and urban agriculture movements, our vision is to create a future where land is the foundation of health and well-being for ALL people in EVERY community.

This year's TerraCorps program will support up to 60 full-time AmeriCorps Members across Massachusetts and Rhode Island each serving in one of five positions: Land Stewardship Coordinator (LSC), Land Conservation Coordinator (LCC), Community Engagement Coordinator (CEC), Youth Education Coordinator (YEC), or Sustainable Agriculture Coordinator (SAC). Members will serve in full-time, 11-month terms (August 29th, 2022-July 28, 2023) in which they complete at least 1,700 hours of service with one of our partner organizations. Members receive a living allowance, education award, and additional AmeriCorps benefits (see full list at end of announcement).

Community Involved In Sustaining Agriculture (CISA) will host a Community Engagement Coordinator for the 2022-23 service year. Information about all TerraCorps positions is available at <https://terrakorps.org/>.

Community Engagement Coordinator with CISA

Community Involved In Sustaining Agriculture (CISA)

1 Sugarloaf Street
South Deerfield, MA 01373
buylocalfood.org

Community Involved in Sustaining Agriculture (CISA) is a non-profit organization that strengthens farms and engages the community to build the local food economy. Our programs include the Be a Local Hero, Buy Locally Grown[®] business membership and marketing campaign, educational activities for the public, technical assistance trainings and workshops for farmers. These programs, in addition to others, are focused on expanding market options for farmers and increasing access to local food for all communities in our region.

CISA staff work collaboratively within the organization as well as outside the organization to educate partners and community members about the importance of local agriculture in our local food system.

Community Engagement Coordinators (CEC) build the long-term capacity of their Service Sites by developing and leading culturally inclusive programming, events, and volunteer opportunities that provide broad social and environmental benefits to underrepresented beneficiaries. Member projects address inequities in public health, economic opportunity, education, land accessibility, and environmental sustainability. Through engaging diverse peoples and collaborating with community partners, CECs build bridges that reinforce the connection between land and a sustainable social, economic, and environmental future for all people.

TerraCorps Members engage with their supervisors to develop and carry out three or more capacity building projects over the course of the service year. Some of these projects will involve recruiting, training, and/or managing community volunteers. CISA has proposed the following potential projects for their Community Engagement Coordinator:

1. Help build sales at farmers' markets and farms, through promoting the Healthy Incentive Program (HIP). CISA's TerraCorps Member will educate service providers about HIP through training sessions and direct outreach. Member will also collaborate with partners as well as farmers' market vendors and managers to promote open HIP access points to community members.
2. The TerraCorps Member will focus heavily on building strong relationships with partner organizations that have direct relationships with low-income residents. They will collaborate with peer organizations across Franklin, Hampshire, and Hampden county via each county's respective Community Health Improvement Plan (CHIP) group focused on food access and food insecurity. They will assist on and lead projects identified by these partner networks to advance food security and promote SNAP/HIP at local food retailers and farms. Projects are to be determined in partnership with other members of the network, and examples could include: farmers' market coach programs to welcome low-income customers to the market, HIP access point mapping, and/or creating shared resource databases.

Development of these and other projects will occur during the first two months of service and consider the Member's interests and skills.
