Service Site Supervisor: Catherine Sullivan email: catherine@natickfarm.org phone: 508 655 2204 option 1

I. Organization and Program Information

TerraCorps cultivates an ecosystem of people and organizations that center community land ownership, access, and stewardship to support a diversity of interests that benefit human health and environmental sustainability. We value the power of local nonprofits to best understand and serve their communities and our goal is to help them succeed by providing them access to the AmeriCorps national service model to build organizational capacity.

TerraCorps partners with a network of 40+ nonprofits in Massachusetts and Rhode Island focused on community needs related to local land conservation and sustainable agriculture. These partners provide service sites for a new cohort of up to 60 AmeriCorps service members annually who serve in one of five coordinator roles focused on:

- Land Conservation
- Land Stewardship
- Sustainable Agriculture
- Community Engagement
- Youth Education

Service members are paired with a site supervisor who provides them guidance and mentorship while they learn to manage community programs and projects over an 11-month, 1700-hour service term.

Service member will be serving at the Natick Community Organic Farm (NCOF).

NCOF is a nonprofit, certified-organic farm. Founded in 1975, we provide productive open space, farm products and hands-on education for all ages, year-round. Our farm-based educational programs are rich in community and connection, both with each other and the natural world.
